Home Scene Investigation

You have already found some germ hotspots in your classroom. Now investigate your home to see if you can find germ hotspots there, too.

Work with your parents to create a clean routine for your house.

1. What areas should be cleaned once a day?
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________

2. Who is responsible?  ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________

3. What areas should be cleaned once a week?
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________

4. Who is responsible?  ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________

5. What areas should be cleaned twice a week?
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________

6. Who is responsible?  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________  ___________________________________________