

Home Scene Investigation

You found germ hot spots in your classroom. Now find germ hot spots in your house. Be a detective. Look for places that your family touches the most. Circle them in the picture.

There are some things which you touch every day which may not be in the picture. Draw three things in your house you touch every day (like a phone or remote control).

How can you help stop the spread of germs in your house?

---

---